

Judge John C. Creuzot Award for Judicial Vision and Leadership

"For Courage, Vision and Conviction in the Justice System"

Judge Creuzot is a pioneer of drug courts in Texas playing a significant role in changing the courts of criminal justice in Texas. Judge Creuzot recognized the need to steer the Texas criminal justice system in a different direction by giving repeat drug offenders an opportunity to change in the face of great opposition. Ignoring criticism and a new nickname, "let'em go Creuzot," Judge Creuzot demonstrated courage, vision, and conviction to the belief that drug courts were and evidence-based practice worthy of establishing in Texas.

Established in 2010, the Creuzot Award honors a Judge who demonstrates visionary leadership and courage used to further the ideal and concept of problem-solving courts
